Orthopaedic Surgery Grand Rounds and Case Conference

Overview

This is a weekly conference held by the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery. There is a presentation on each case that is performed the prior week across the whole Department. At least one knowledge gap is addressed in depth at each conference with a 45 minute lecture. For that specific topic, recent data and recommendations are reviewed. Cases are also reviewed in their entirety. Diagnosis, management decisions, literature and best practices are presented on the topic.
